

Earth, Wind & Fire "Energy"

As we float
Through time as energy
Seeking no place, filling all space with song
Creating, giving and integrating all moods

Happiness and sorrow, joy and pain
Remain the same as always
As energy breathing air filled with prana
Awaiting the timeless times of Nirvana

To speak and learn secrets of life
Energy, now we can call on you
Because we love you
We call on you because we love you

Love is what we've got now
Let's live it every day
Love is what we've got now
Let's live it every day

When someone's in trouble
You just can't turn him away
Just can't turn him away

You just can't turn him away
Just can't turn him away, no
Don't turn your back, listen to me

Lots of people dying
Ain't no cause at all
Mama's baby cryin'
Ain't no love at all

Come on, people, people it's time to begin
Give love from your heart
You'll always have a friend
Give love from your heart
You'll always have a friend, come on now

Come on, people, people it's time to begin
Give love from your heart
You'll always have a friend

Give love from your heart
You'll always have a friend
Give love, love now
