Evil, runnin' through our brain
We and evil's just about the same

Bad blood through our body flows
Where's the love nobody knows
Nobody knows, nobody knows, nobody knows

Beauty in our face you see
Tryin' to hide all our misery
Our misery, our misery, our misery

But, evil, runnin' through our brain
We and evil's just about the same
Evil, ooh, in our life, 'causin' strife

Lookin' for a place to gild
A little light in our souls and minds

Maybe if we learn to pray
Life would give us sunshiny days
Sunshiny days, sunshiny days, sunshiny days

And evil, it's runnin' through our brains
Turn to love and won't be the blame
Won't be the blame, won't be the blame, won't be the blame

Evil, yeah, in our life
Evil, 'causin' strife, evil
