rap:

the boys

we're just chillin' with Earth, Wind & Fire this is my desire

talking 'bout culture

I'm a vulture

just like the beat

chillin' with Earth, Wind & Fire everybody take a look around what do you see

when I look

there's faces everywhere

lookin' back at me

their eyes keep telling me stories don't understand

in my mind

there's many, many questions

bout who I am

bridge:

just be proud of the land where your blood comes from

no one can take away

what you have done

hold your head up high

cultures stand eye to eye one people living under one sun

chorus:

be proud

sing it out loud

take your rightful place

it's you heritage

so stand tall

don't be small

show true face

it's your heritage

everybody walks a little different to keep the pace

gotta have pride
just to be a winner
in the human race
in school, the rules don't fly out on the street, tell me why people of the nation can't feel the same beat

bridge

bridge:
we're living in a colorful world all shades of love each carrying a ray of hope sent down from above

rap:
yo Marice: break it down for me allright The Boys chillin' wit Earth, Wind and Flames they asked us to sing a few notes so we came realized the meaning of the song so we sung
with all our heart and soul and hopefully we brung a message to all
to not be small
to stand up tall
and to give it your all let's have a ball y'all pump it up!
