Mom, she gave me words of love
She gave me peace and love
She gave me thoughts of love
Well, well, well, yeah

Mom, she gave me pains and joy
I love her more and more
To her I'm still her boy
Yeah, yeah, yeah

And in my life I've always loved her, yeah
And in my life I've always cared, yeah
And in my life I'll always need her, yeah
The mom I know I love so well

Mom, her face is still the same
She never seems to change
Her love will still remain

Mom, the love she gave, I long
But she taught from right and wrong
She shared and kept me strong

Mom, mom, mom, well, well, well, well
Mom [Incomprehensible]
