You're like no one else that I have loved before
There's a certain something in my heart
For the first time in my life I know for sure You're the love that I've been looking for

A few unsettled differences is where we stand
With a little effort we can work it out
I just want to hold you in my arms again Find it in your heart to let me in

I want to spend the night with you, baby
Make love like we used to do
Oh, I want to feel the fire within, I want to fall in love
again
When the night is through, I want to spend the night
with you

There's a full moon shining in the sky above
Let's don't waste this night on sad goodbyes After all it's you that I've been dreaming of Let's give into making up

I want to spend the night with you, baby
Make love like we used to do
Oh, I want to feel the fire within, I want to fall in love
again
When the night is through, I want to spend the night
with you
Spend the night with you, spend the night with you

I want to spend the night with you, baby
Make love like we used to do
Oh, I want to feel the fire within, I want to fall in love
again
When the night is through, I want to spend the night
with you
