"Simple Things"

I'm a simple girl who loves simple things
I have hopes and I have dreams
But what would they mean
If you were not here with me

I ain't trying to be nobody's superstar (superstar)
Lord I wanna be right where you are Tomorrow if you'd take it all away
I'd still be loving you anyway (Still be loving you anyway)

Oh I love these simple things
Because I'm just a simple girl
Oh I love these simple things
Because I'm just a simple girl

It ain't like I ain't never been there before (there before)
When there was no open door
And I thanked you all the more
That is what you made me for

I still love the beach and the sounds of waves
I love the park and the trees of shade
It's the way you cover me
From the heat of the day (You find a way to cover me, cover me)

Oh I love these simple things
Because I'm just a simple girl
Oh I love these simple things
Because I'm just a simple girl
