I don't know if you believe
In everything you see I mean
When the moon is full of blood
And the stars are full of tears
I'll be near
In the passion
I'll be near
In the traction

I don't know if you believe
The future's what it used to be
When they put a mirror on the moon it didn't shatter
'till they took ? for the leader
And I was there
For an after taste
And I was there
My tongue slipped down
'till I saw clear through the hourglass
The hourglass

She wanted me to take the elevator to the basement
It's amazing the hurricanes that were chasing
She wanted me to take the elevator to the basement
It's amazing the hurricanes that were chasing

And then in a thousand years
If we come through, reappear
Will I realize that he was always you
Will you be there in a hundred years
Will you be there to tell me that you don't care
Will you be there
To tell me that you don't care

They came to me
By means of beams
X7

They came to me
By means of beams
They came to me
By means of beams
They came to me
