Bastard child before they started
We were never meant to smoke the antarctic
I was pneumatic our vomit's we recycled
It scars my teeth as it flows out in tidals
But still it's vital i watch the dogs taste it
I'll re-invent time just so i can waste it
Running down the yellow brick (Not correct - HELP !)
Trying to find out who's at the controls
If it's the wizard of oz
By now he must be fucking old
Probably turned to stone like that statue of that girl
I see you're all alone
I'll catch you in another world
You can tell me what i done when i weren't there
How'd you know i lied when i said i wasn't scared

I suppose it was obvious what it does to us
When they show no love to us
I suppose it was obvious what it does to us
When they show no love to us
I suppose it was obvious what it does to us
When they show no love to us

Technological fantasy, vertual man, it's like
Soon we'll be selling human babies out of cans
So you won't have to steal them from Romania
Get them from the corner shop, these wil
Look the same as you
Right colour right sparkle in the eye
Economical, diabolical genetic genocide
Pick and choose, mix and match
If you ain't happy within ten days
Then bring the little fucker back
Snack time is the black time
Microwave me a nigga sandwich

I suppose it was obvious what it does to us
When they show no love to us
I suppose it was obvious what it does to us
When they show no love to us
I suppose it was obvious what it does to us
When they show no love to us

I suppose it was obvious what it does to us
When they show no love to us
I suppose it was obvious what it does to us

And the love is...

Circumcised girls, sperm cells and ovaries
Ketamine snap crackle and pop
Jesus is screaming but no one is hearing him
We need a bigger knife to cut this new life Caesarian
Resurrection but nobody sees ya
Walking around town like you fucking got amnesia
But you can do as you please this time
Turn the water into wine stumble drunk past the shrine
Go to mary let her tend to your wounds
But be careful as you enter her womb
She's been living in a room
Blackening pages for ages
Saying this is where the blaze is

I suppose it was obvious what it does to us
When they show no love to us
I suppose it was obvious what it does to us
When they show no love to us
I suppose it was obvious what it does to us
When they show no love to us
I suppose it was obvious
