Have you heard of the saying for those who are playing?

You don't know what you've got till it's gone
Well, that was my calling and I knew I was falling Into something that would be so wrong

But I gotta hold of myself and changed for the better
I can't get you out of my mind 'cause something inside
Made me realize you were far

Each time that we're alone
I guess I didn't know
How far we were apart
Should have spoken to my heart

I guess I didn't know that
Each time you go away I cry
I can't take all these goodbyes

I know from this feeling deep inside there's a healing
I know that I'm in control, every day I am yearning
This love, I feel burning, burning right through my soul

So let's make a start of something that cannot be broken
The mold is so strong treat this love as a child
That grows into something worthwhile

Each time that we're alone
I guess I didn't know
How far we were apart
Should have spoken to my heart

I guess I didn't know that
Each time you go away I cry
I can't take all these good-byes

Deep, love so deep
Deep, love so deep yeah
I can't take all these goodbyes

Faithfully I will be you will see

Please believe me
I can't take all these good-byes

Each time that we're alone
I guess I didn't know
How far we were apart
Should have spoken to my heart

I guess I didn't know that
Each time you go away I cry
I can't take all these goodbyes

All the time we were alone
Guess I should have really known
Baby, you have always been mine
(I guess I didn't know)

All the time we were alone
Guess I should have really known
Baby, you have always been mine

Each time that we're alone
How far we were apart
I guess I didn't know
