Lies birthed kill innocence. Child's smile turn upside down.
Silence bears the mark you see, bring an end to what's
to come.
You don't see what I can see, twisted pictures haunting
me,
Failure trails so close behind, you'll just wait till we
meet again.
[chorus]
You, You're the reason. You're the one that's stealing
my freedom!
Anger scars another back, Child quiet to mask the pain, Running from a scary man, bring an end to what's the come.
You don't see what I can see, twisted pictures haunting
me,
Failure trails so close behind, you'll just wait till we
meet again.
[chorus]
You, You're the reason. You're the one that's stealing
my freedom!
Refresh me, renew me, refresh me, renew me.
