I don't think I've ever felt like this I don't think I've ever known so much happiness I never had one touch change so much, and oh what a feeling

This time, I'm sure that heaven must have sent you from above
'Cause I get butterflies when you whisper sweet love
No other heart will do, oh it's only you

Chorus:

You take my breath away, everytime you hold me, I want to say I love you My cup is to the top, and emotions overflowing Baby this ain't no ordinary love, this ain't no ordinary love

My love, you've given new meaning to romance and my world
Would never be the same again, no more tears in the rain
No more hidden inhibitions It's a brand new day and it's filled with your magic We both know that it's real and what we feel inside
No mountain's too high to climb, no river can divide After all is said and done you're the one, I'm already gone

chorus

I know nothing is guaranteed, but I'll take my chances There's no need to worry, this is not ordinary love

(Instrumental break)

I love you, baby

Baby this ain't no ordinary love, this ain't no ordinary

No ordinary love, ain't no, ain't no, no ordinary love

No it's only you, no other heart will do

It's only you, no other heart will do

It's special, special, it's gonna be special, special (to fade)
