Goodnight my friends
Im glad youve come around
Youve been so down
Oh the joy of seeing you smile so wide
I don't need anything
These broken shoes
Have done some walking and
Though all these holes
We touch the ground and it feels like home
I don't need anything
Don't look and you wont find
Its always worth your time
I love you and goodnight
Goodnight
I said this hurt
It wont last forever and
This time Im right
As you turn to me and you smile so wide
I don't need anything
This lucky day
Its been a long time coming and
All that weve done
It wont be forgotten. Goodnight
Goodnight
Don't look and you wont find
Its always worth your time
I love you and goodnight
Goodnight
(instrumental)
Play back this tape I swear you'll see
I only wanted you to be with me
Oh, Kill The Last Romantic
And come back for me
