"A Million Years"

I promise not to touch, I'll let you be.
I just wanna' watch you when you sleep.
Promise I will go away,
If you promise not to leave.

Close my mouth, 'cause it's no use.
There aren't any words to speak the truth.
Blow it all away and begin again.
Start all over wi' you my friend.
Are there any ways to make you cry?
If I knew, I definitely would try.

I'll wait here for a million years.

You know that you can take my love away.
Keep tearing off little pieces every day.
Soon, there will be nothing left of me for you to hate.

I'll wait here for a million years.

Here, here...
Here, here...
Here...
