Tell him you ain't coming home
Cause tonight is our night, jeans fitting right
Yep, , did it right, got on them heels like you like
Dressed,like you like , plus the feel like you like

You damn right, gonna be a long night
Sick of sitting home, when your man ain't acting right
Last night, city head to hop a flight, yeah right
I just seen him make a right, at the light
Girlfriend better take my advice
And I bet you next time, , to think twice
Or pay the price, try to play nice
Nice girls finish last, tell that nigga beat it right ah

We hanging out tonight, , in the house tonight
Put on your freaking dress and tell him you ain't coming home
Cause tonight is our night, jeans fitting right
Yep, , did it right, got on them heels like you like
Dressed,like you like , plus the feel like you like

Yeah, you know it baby
About to drive him crazy
Especially when they see me pull up in that Mercedes
No if's but some maybes, baby daddies wanna date me
Cruise the metropolis, that's where he wanna take me
Baby boy, kinda looking like Jody
Kick my game too, or maybe caught it like a goalie
Told me, that he wanna get to know me
And do I got some friends for his homies

We hanging out tonight, , in the house tonight
Put on your freaking dress and tell him you ain't
coming home
Cause tonight is our night, jeans fitting right
Yep, , did it right, got on them heels like you like
Dressed,like you like , plus the feel like you like

You the type of chick waiting , to please him
Tell you he ain't cheating and you actually believe him

Got you stressed out, trying your best to keep him
We love him then we leave him
And treat him like we don't need him
Catch me slipping on that lemon and Moscato
Living for today, no we not guarantee tomorrow
Damn, we done kill the whole bottle
Know where we go, the party gonn' follow

We hanging out tonight, , in the house tonight
Put on your freaking dress and tell him you ain't
coming home
Cause tonight is our night, jeans fitting right
Yep, , did it right, got on them heels like you like
Dressed, like you like , plus the feel like you like.
