An essence drawn beneath the surface Coiled into human form a Human Serpent Craved its form for human flesh
But still inside a rigid reptile

Until we die
force fed we swallow
a vicious way of living

Born from the seed of deception Came this unexpected guest, a human serpentine Initiation to an eerie convention
The feelings unfaithful and unable to feel the change

Until we die
force fed we swallow

No escape from materialistic frontiers Now everything gets a whole new meaning Hunted but still straw Initiation and grinding infestation!

Encounters between those who stand for faith
As everything shatters, blood gives a warm flow Terror but nothing to fear
The thirst finally won the test no hope to stand against

Until we die
force fed we swallow

Venomous serpentine and evil outdated seals contain our ego!
