Wish that you were here
Down amongst the dust
I need someone to help me
Yeah, I need someone to trust

There's something in these tears
Turning me to rust
I need someone to help me
Yeah, I need someone to touch

Give me one more try
And I'll come flaking back to you
Wish that you were here
I wish that it was true

I can feel stars
Shooting through my heart like rain
Leaving all the scars
Where the pleasure turns to pain

Point me in the light
Of a bright and a shining right direction
And then take me home again

Just when you think it's over
Just when you think it's done
Out of every nowhere
Never see it come

I know the lines are showing
I can't keep them in
Like everybody's story
It's written on the skin

Give me one last try
And I'll make it up to you
Wish that you were here
Wish that I was true

I can feel stars
Shooting through my heart like rain
Leaving all the scars

Where the pleasure turns to pain

Point me in the light
Of a bright and a shining right direction
And then take me home again
Take me home again

I wish that you were here
Down amongst my dust
I need someone to help me
Yeah, I need someone to trust

There's something in these tears
Turning me to rust
Wish that you were here
Wish that it was us

I can feel stars

Point me in the light
And then take me home again
Take me home again

Everything's gonna be alright
