I'm so paranoid
I listen for the footsteps down the hall
Though it's only you
I fear for the things you might do
I'm so paranoid
I listen for the footsteps down the hall
Who's behind your eyes just then?

Who knows what we know?
When you hate to reap just what you sow?
You get what you deserve
And I know you hate what you just heard
Who knows what we know?
When you hate to reap just what you sow?
Who's behind your eyes just then?

Chorus I:

Who's behind your eyes?

Verse and bridge III:

The ghost of you and me
Falling from the same appletree
Is this what you want?
Your apple grove I'll always haunt
The ghost of you and me
Falling from the same appletree
Whose behind your eyes just then?

Chorus II:

The ghost of you and me
