Verse I:

Honey, why can't you forgive yourself?
Why can't you put your past on the shelf?
You're beautiful
Not just I can see
Now root like a tree
And set yourself free

Chorus:

You're your own prisoner
And you have the key
Now root like a tree
Set yourself free

I want to hold you up
But you knock yourself down
You knock yourself down

Gonna knock yourself down

Verse II:

I don't know how to say this, my friend
But I am going to see her again
She is the ocean
I am the babe
In love I am drowning
To love I'm a slave

Chorus.
