i lost a fragment of myself made me understand what i've become falling like i always did made me take control felt the weakness lose its touch leaving me to find what i had lost my heartbeat rhythm found its phase

understand me now
listen to the words i'm saying, baby
i found my soul
and it keeps me hanging on
the frequency of the beat gets higher i'm on my own

time passes slowly standing still moving in to make that one last kill embracing me longing hands takes me far away gives me comfort i won't need in this world i am my only friend because no one seems to know my name

repeat
