How jealous is heaven now
When this seat belongs in the clouds
Iâ€™m well on my way
Iâ€™m feeling it all for the first time

So come push me to the ground
I do most anything to keep you around
Iâ€™m well on my way
Iâ€™m felling it all for the first time

Maybe itâ€™s not love
I loved how it feels to be
The things that were most scared of
Or the things that can set us free

I feel home for the first time
I feel home with you for the first time
I feel like Iâ€™m home for the very first time in a while

Light flashes all around
And vibrant pride color bleed right through the sound
Iâ€™m well on my way
Iâ€™m feeling it all for the first time

Look up at the sky
Stars youâ€™ve never seen
But unlike this night
And the thought of you next to me

I feel home for the first time
I feel home with you for the first time
I feel like Iâ€™m home for the very first time in a while

I feel home for the first time
I feel home with you for the first time
I feel home for the first time
I feel home with you for the first time
I feel like Iâ€™m home for the very first time and
I feel like Iâ€™m home for the very first time and
I feel like Iâ€™m home for the very first time in a while
