High above the roof tops
Higher than the milky way
Slipping through the hourglass
Shooting up the desert plain

You are one life older than before
But you can't stop this chill
Now you're falling in slow motion
Though the air is still

If you close your eyes
Then I will take you all the way
Let me close your eyes
And I will take it all the way

You are on the outside
Hands upon the window sill
I am on the inside
Carving up the hunter's kill

If you would close your eyes
Then I can take you all the way
Let me close your eyes
And I will take it all the way

Cruising on a missile
Cruising on a desert plain
Wading through a minefield
Wading through the monsoon rain

Surfing on an oil spill
Surfing on a perfect wave
Porn upon the airwaves
Rituals of the mating game

'Cause if you close your eyes
Then I can take you all the way
Let me close your eyes
And I will take it all the way

'Cause if you close your eyes
Then I can take you all the way

Let me close your eyes
And I will take it all the way
