In the idle light of a fading day
There's a past I lost
One I gave away
One I used to know

Caught in the dust
Of a desert plain
Waiting for
The rains to fall

It's something that I feel, rain falls
Something that I feel when rain falls
More than a world away
It's always here inside

In all that has overgrown
Almost underground
Could never be all erased
Only lost and found

One I left behind
Caught in the dust of a desert plain
Waiting for
The rains to come

It's something that I feel, rain falls
Something that I feel when rain falls
More than a world away
It's always here inside
