with a one way ticket and a burn from summer love, i'm giving up on everything and everyone i'm turning into the way I said i'll never say I've ever been, once again, what never was has never been but you can't breathe cause i'm ready to die, or make believe it was never a lie a sucker for your second chances, bad ideas or fake romances

tonight under starlight, i'm leaving indieanna, again you're giving into the way you said you'll never said you'd ever been, once again, another start, another end but you can't sleep, now i'm cutting the ties, hope your dream is sweet unlike a bitter goodbye and no more of your second chances, bad ideas and fake romances

tonight under starlight, i'm leaving indieanna again
tonight under starlight, i'm leaving indieanna again

it turned out you were never worth repeating, i'm burned out, but oh my heart is beating
burned out, but oh my heart is beating
burned out..

tonight under starlight, i'm leaving indieanna again
tonight under starlight, i'm leaving indieanna again
tonight under starlight, i'm leaving indieanna again it's over the state i'm in with a one way ticket and a burn from summer love
