You're right you opened my eyes to a beautiful world
So close I came to the dark side to be rescued by you It's dawn now, the suns coming home to heat my bones and clear my head I'm littered, scattered and jitters I'm the best I've ever been

It's overrated, all we do
It's overrated, all we do

I owe you

I love you and I trust you, that you'll love me too

your rescue, my refuge
your rescue, my refuge

I owe you
I love you
I trust you
That you'll love me too
