Today is just another day
In the world you're living in
You see a king on his throne
I see our requiems
Misery is a game you play
A game you'll never win
Your kingdom's crumbling down again
Today it's going to end

Go ahead and make your move
We'll call it suicide
Bloody knuckles busted up
It's going to end tonight
Everybody's on the run
You just can't shut your mouth
You built a house of vanity
Now watch me burn it down

You can't escape your fate
You cannot runaway
Your pain is the toll I take
It's time for you to pay
Misery is a game you play
And game you'll never win
Your kingdom's crumbling down again
Today it's going to end

Go ahead and make your move
We'll call it suicide
Bloody knuckles busted up
It's going to end tonight
Everybody's on the run
You just can't shut your mouth
You built a house of vanity
Now watch me burn it down

Step right up you're going down
Your time is running out
Step right up you're going down
Your time is running out
Step right up you're going down

Your time is running out
Step right up you're going down

Misery is a game you play
A game you'll never win
Your kingdom's crumbling down again

Go ahead and make your move
We'll call it suicide
Bloody knuckles busted up
You built a house of vanity
Now watch me burn it down

Go ahead and make your move
