Dark ages have come to pass Bring us the black flame to light our way
We shall follow we shall obey
The ways of chaos
Return universe to abyss Extermination of existence Dark eons have come once again
Old gods return from black abyss
From void to void
The beginning reversed,
The ending come to pass
We the strong the elite our will to power to non existence, Back to the past were time is nothing Where matter is irrelevant
The old gods have come,
The seventh seal is opened,
We hold the keys
The blackest hate unleashed, Reign on the infernal Eclipse now eternal, eclipse now eternal In the darkest abyss of space, the fabric of time and matter, unfold and come apart Our cities shall lie in ruins, our great civilizations fallen to disgrace, life has no meaning to the cosmic disorder, chaos beyond imagining,
beyond human comprehension, exploding from the beyond the end become the beginning, reversal of the order, unmaking of creation,
the dragon has come to blot out the stars!
To reverse the beginning!
The orbits decay drawing together dust and rock, matter colliding,
black hole rising,
draw in a breath of cosmic debris,
beyond space and time,

removal of reality,
the dragon has come to reverse the beginning A wave of colors across the sky brilliant explosions greet us as we die there is no remorse no pain left to feel the beauty beyond imaging grasps our minds entirely the sounds of destruction blow our hearing completely the sights are blinding yet burnt in our minds the last thought of mankind is to die with this sight is to die fulfilled The dragon has come and blotted out the stars
