"Love & Misery"

The storms getting closer and we are far too blind to see.

This path that weve chosen led us to this misery.

And now we feel like never before.

Youre still the one whom I adore.

Baby, Baby - why cant you hold me?

Baby, Baby could you say that youd die for me?

Weve crossed this fine line between love and misery.

The rain feels colder and even some sunbeams cannot heal.

Were dancing through ghost lights and nothing seems to be real.

And still we feel like never before.

We cant cry forevermore.

Baby, Baby - why cant you hold me?

Baby, Baby could you say that youd die for me?

Weve crossed this fine line between love and misery

[SOLO]

Baby, Baby - why cant you hold me?

Baby, Baby could you say that youd die for me?

Weve crossed this fine line between love and misery.
