Now that the storm is over and the sun clears the sky,
it feels like everything's so far away from yesterday.
All of your tears been dried by the hope that carries
you,
but deep inside your soul some doubts remain.

Sleepless nights caught in disbelief.
A broken heart that dwells in grief

Its only fear that your dreams are dying.
Hunt that shadow let it disappear.
Its only fear that you break down crying.
Hunt that shadow let it disappear.

Nothing's secure and save, you should prove yourself and every break down will make you stronger.
All what happened makes you feel weak and blue,
it ain't an easy life, but your fate is in your hands.

Sleepless nights caught in disbelief.
Shattered faith remains to be reborn.

Its only fear that your dreams are dying.
Hunt that shadow let it disappear.
Its only fear that you break down crying.
Hunt that shadow let it disappear.

Your fears your insecurity Hunt that shadow

[SOLO]

Its only fear that your dreams are dying.
Hunt that shadow let it disappear.
Its only fear that you break down crying.
Hunt that shadow let it disappear.
