walking into a new frontier taking three four steps and i'm out of here got to get it right bring it to me slowly don't go so fast i got to make it last

i take a ride on the winds of change i take my chances and i hope it pays

push it to the limit
the limits they change
sitting by the riverside watch it all go by

ain't gonna lose if i play the game make the rules
then they change i got to make things right i'll tell it to you slowly make sure you know you're going to understand

i'll tell you something there is something that you're missing karma comes from within and it isn't the trash you talk and the lies you're spinning i got a life and i'm living it kicking at the walls till the light punches through got to get a religion give the devil his due standing at the crossroads your hat in your hand jump in the river man
