Shadow dance lazily, across this dim lit room
Are you my enemy, my lover, my ruin?
Warm and shallow are, the waters of your soul
It's my difference, my hurt that makes you whole
Chorus:
You lift me up drag me down
And here I am
Alone
Searchin for serenity in the halls of discontent
Pieces of my sanity, my will, my hope have left
I don't understand, where this all began
Are you my enemy, my lover, my ruin?
(Chorus)
You are so far away
You are so far away
You lift me up, you drag me down
You leave me so alone
(Chorus)
I watch you turn away...I watch you
I watch you turn away...crying
