You'd think that you'd notice
How I've simply chosen to fade
One fleeting moment
I would have hoped I could stay
If I kissed you would you push my face away
If I told you how I feel would you have listened anyway
I miss you, more than words could ever say
I miss you, every single empty day

Did you think this would be easy my friend?
Did you think it'd come to this our bitter end?
Killed the magic, sucked the life out
Buried me under the blame
Follow me down, to this our bitter end

I wish I'd noticed
All the postponements
You saved
I never told you
You were the one I believe
If I touched you would you push my hand away?
If I listened would I've heard the things
That made me run away
I miss you more than words could ever say
I miss you every single empty day

Did you think this would be easy my friend?
Did you think it'd come to this our bitter end?
Killed the magic, sucked the life out
Buried me under the blame
Follow me down to this our bitter end
