YOU DON'T KNOW

So many questions, we need some answers restless and aimless on our way Where are we going, what are we knowing It holds us together separately You don't know what you're looking for coming right now knocking at your door

Proudly unstable, willing and able A narrow gate you offer me Thoughtless incision, selfish precision It tears us apart now can't you see

You don't know what you're looking for
coming right now knocking at your door Temptation, salvation, stand up and show your colors now
You don't know what you're looking for

There is a secret place, that time can not erase where everyone's accountable for their mistakes there is no shame in grace, maybe more give less take this isn't over yet, time to go face to face I want to find the truth, I need to know the way I gotta listen hard to all the things you say The light is shining through, now I know what to do separate but still together we can make it new

You don't know what you're looking for
Coming right now knocking at your door
Surrender, pretender, bow down now on your knees and pray
You don't know what you're looking for
