"One Beautiful Day"

Ooh, this has been
One beautiful day
You took my troubles
And blew them away

This has been one beautiful day
I took time out
To laugh and play

Life can be fun
When two hearts are one
Darling, I pray, this good feeling
Won't ever go away

Yesterday my life
Was filled with sorrow
And who can say
What may come tomorrow

These stolen moments
Sure, there's a few
We're tantalizing
They may be brand new

This has been one (oh)
Beautiful day (beautiful day)
You took my troubles
And blew them away (hey, hey)

This has been one (one)
Beautiful day (beautiful day)
I took time out
To laugh and play

Life can be fun
When two hearts are one
Darling, I pray, this good feeling
Won't ever go away

A few days ago, boy
I didn't even know
But today changed all of that

Honey, now I adore you

Sweet visions of you
Will dance through my head
Tonight while I lie
Awake in my bed

This has been one (oh)
Beautiful day (beautiful day)
You took my troubles
And blew them away

This has been one
Beautiful day (beautiful day)
I took time out
To laugh and play

Life can be fun
When two hearts are one
Darling, I pray, this good feeling
Won't ever go away

(Oh) this has been one
(This has been one)
Beautiful day (beautiful day)
You took my troubles
And blew them away (hey, hey)

This has been one (oh)
Beautiful day (my, my, my, my)
I took time out to laugh and play

Life can be fun
When two hearts are one
Darling, I pray, this good feeling
Won't ever go away

This has been one (oh)
Beautiful day (beautiful day)
You took my troubles
(You took my troubles)
And blew them away
(Blew then away)

This has been one
Beautiful day...
