

Ed Bruce

"Kentucky Boy, California Man"

Visit "Kentucky Boy, California Man" on MotoLyrics.com

Suzane and I said out goodbye
Some time ago on a north Kentucky farm
I walked away from a steer one day
I return with the moon, and the stars

Left her standing all alone
Forty miles from nowhere in a bluegrass field
Waving goodbye, tears in her eyes
Watching her love fade away into the hills

I heard california, had lots of sunshine dreams and retrain booths
And I could just speak to my sweet suzane
Lyn back in a hollywood mansion wearing my gold Done my way into frisco bay, spread my bed on california sand

Suzane be strong, it wont take long
For your kentucky boy to be a california man

Suzane, that ocean breeze got cold
So I'll walk in to town, just to warm my chill
Found a cheap backstreet hotel, and ladies with no names, up for sell
Your country boy had never seen a california lady in a gold inten

Tentation got strong, it didn't take long
For your kentucky boy to be a california man

Suzane surely you know by now
Your kentucky boy wont be coming back again

Tentation got strong, and it didn't take long
For your kentucky boy to be a california man

Visit Ed Bruce page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.