Making an appearance at the club tonight
Playing some songs that I think are alright
I'm not post-modern just a man who can bark
And bite with teeth that leave a mark

In the winter your eyes are gray
But in the spring they sparkle away
I'm on a mission to make some amends
Whilst I'm gone this might all end

Oh, it's like I'm part of the jetset
Respectively, I haven't been that reckless yet

Drift through the air like a paper plane
Rainbow colors pulsate through the brain
I'm aware that I'm speaking but the words come out wrong

So I'll put it across in a simple song

Oh, it's like I'm part of the jetset
Respectively, I haven't been that reckless

Never have I been part of any scene
Just remember this, it's just you and me
You're alone it's true, I break my bones for you
My soul is constantly beaten black and blue
Never have I been part of any scene
Just remember this, it's just you and me

Ooh, jetsetter, ooh, jetsetter
Ooh, jetsetter, ooh, jetsetter
Ooh, jetsetter, ooh, jetsetter
Ooh, jetsetter
