

Ed Harcourt

"Still I Dream Of It"

Visit "Still I Dream Of It" on MotoLyrics.com

Time for supper now, day's been hard and I'm so tired
I feel like eating now Smell the kitchen now, hear the maid whistle a tune my thoughts are fleeting now Still I dream of it of that happy day when I can say I've fallen in love
And it haunts me so like a dream that's somehow linked
to all the stars above

Young and beautiful, like a tree that's just been planted
I found life today
I made mistakes today, will I ever learn the lessons that all come my way
Still I dream of it of that happy day when I can say I've
fallen in love
And it haunts me so like a dream that's somehow
linked
to all the stars above

A little while ago my mother told me Jesus loved the world
And if that's true then why hasn't he helped me to find a girl
And find my world 'til then I'm just a dreamer

I'm convinced of it the hypnosis of our minds can take us far away It's so easy now you see someone up there high and heaven's here to stay Still I dream of it of that happy day when I can say I've
fallen in love
And it haunts me so like a dream that's somehow
linked
to all the stars above

Da da da daa..... da da da daa..... (fade out)

Visit Ed Harcourt page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.
