When I grow too old to dream,
Oh, I'll have you to remember.
And when I grow too doggone old to dream,
Your kiss will be here in my heart.

So kiss me my sweet,
And so, let us part.
Oh, and when I grow too doggone old to dream,
Your kiss gonna be here in my heart.

Yeah, when I am so doggone old I can't do the things that I used to do,
I'll pull out my chest of memoirs, baby, and just mmm
think about you.
And when these arms of mine can't hold no more,
That kiss will be here in my heart.

So come on and kiss me and kiss me and kiss me and kiss me
And mmm keep on kissing me baby.
And so, so let us part. Un huh.
And when, when I grow too old to dream, that kiss, one
kiss, un huh,
Your kiss will be here in my heart.
