A borrowed love can never last
A borrowed love will fill your heart with pain
A borrowed love is like a storm
It leaves you standin' all alone in the rain
Fools who make love with bad kisses
Are livin' on a borrowed love
A borrowed love is just a game
A borrowed love is lust for lust a day
A borrowed love will leave you cold
And when it's gone you'll be the one who will pray
Count the heartaches, count the teardrops
They're only part of borrowed love

A borrowed love, a borrowed love
I was a fool to think that you would last
You took my kiss, you broke my heart
But now I'm free and you are left in the past
I found true love with a new love
Never need a borrowed love
Never need a borrowed love
