Goodbye bye bye bye forever
Goodbye bye bye bye my love
How can you say you still love me
When seen in the arms of a friend
The flame that burns for me is dying slowly
It's time we both wake up, let's not pretend

Goodbye bye bye bye forever
Goodbye bye bye bye my love
We're fooling ourselves just by thinking
Let's not pretend anymore
You can stop writing me letters
I took my phone off the hook
I don't have time to play around with romance
It's love I want, so please let's not pretend

Goodbye bye bye bye forever
Goodbye bye bye bye my love
We're fooling ourselves just by thinking
Let's not pretend anymore
