"Without You"

Visit "Without You" on MotoLyrics.com

There'll never be a love for me without you
The dreams I dream all seem to be about you
My lips would never miss
A kiss that's not your kiss
My heart would never let me be untrue

My arms are empty arms
Unless they hold you
My eyes could never tell no other
What they told you
This world you made for me
Would crumble suddenly
If I should ever be without you

This world you made for me
Would crumble suddenly
If I should ever be without you
