"Human Condition"

Hey hey, hey hey, so you say
Well this sounds just like the promises
You made before
You say you're just one of us
And then you turn away
If you said you wasn't lying you'd be a liar

But that's just the human condition
And the only thing that keeps us on top
To defeat the better man, the better man

Record low, bottom out, what's this all about
Why watch the sun arise
When it goes down at night
You say "hey ho, let's not go"
Blanketed in doubt
It's just your fear of life not fear of dying
