The richest and the fittest
Should try and help the needy and the sickest Consistently instead they'll always try and rule the world
But tell me how long can that persist?

Killed for aid they were supplying
So sick and tired of even fucking trying We'll sell our superpower if you sell us your freedom
And I hope you love your empire

Billions hold up the ladder
So many that it doesn't even matter
People have this tendency to say
"fuck the world as long as our flag rules"
