After loving you the longest time your eyes show me the exit sign I can't ignore the sign I read when I hold you how cold you feel but It's so hard for me to say goodbye yes I know you see tears in my eyes so I'll go before I break down and cry cause it's so hard for me to say goodbye

Girl I'm leaving you I won't try to push you back although I'll be losing you at least my pride will stay intact my heart says stay but my mind says no the longer I delay I just won't go

But it's so hard for me to say goodbye I can change I'm a lover to the end I can change ounce I know it's the end cause it's so hard for me to say good bye it's so hard it's so hard

Yes I know you see tears in my eyes so I'll go before
