It's so real to see, you don't have to be everything to everyone

Just be glad another day to see the sun

And you got a chance to take the wrongs and make them right

It's always 'bout the finer things in life

As long as you're breathing you can get up on your dream

And just remember, don't be hard on yourself

You best believe there'll be days it's gonna rain again

We all want the finer things we see with our eyes

We deny happiness we have inside

We all gotta try, try the simple life, the simple life

See, money and cars would do but three simple words

'I Love You'

Always seemed to brighten up a day, oh, yeah

And all the material gain, all the fortune and the fame

Don't take away the pain when somebody comes and says

'Oh, you've lost your best friend?'

The money and the cars, they don't mean nothing

Just remember, don't be hard on yourself

You best believe there'll be days it's gonna rain, oh, yeah, yeah

We all want the finer things we see with our eyes

We deny the happiness we kept inside

Oh, we need to try, sometimes try the simple life, the simple life, oh

I'm not sayin' just settle

And just lay down and let the whole world run over you

You gotta do what you gotta do, oh

But don't, don't be hard on yourself

You best believe there'll be days it's gonna rain, pouring down, down, down

We all want the finer things we see with our eyes

And we deny the happiness we have inside

Oh, sometimes we need to try, the simple, the simple,

the simple life
The simple life
