You think I'm strong, a lucky kind of guy
A man who never walks away, a man who never cries
But you're so wrong, 'cause you will never know
That there's another side of me that I will never show

When I'm crying, I'm crying in my pillow
Somebody left and made me look so small
When I'm crying, I'm crying in my pillow
But every time you see me I stand tall

I hide my tears and all the pain I feel
I puttin' up an act of hope you think that is for real'
You never seen the hurtin' in my eyes
'cause everybody likes a man who's tall and never cries

When I'm crying, I'm crying in my pillow
I've been lonely, for oh so many years
When I'm crying, I'm crying in my pillow
I'd be so ashamed if someone saw my tears

You see a man, that lookin' oh so strong
But when I'm lonely in my bed I know that you're so wrong

When I'm crying, I'm crying in my pillow
Somebody left and made me look so small
When I'm crying, I'm crying in my pillow
'cause every time you see me I stand tall
