Heart - don't be a fool, don't you understand she don't want you?

And lips: don't tell her a word

And ears: just don't believe all the things you've heard

Take a look at yourself and realize it's all over

Cause you can't change something that you can't change

The meadow's full of lovely four-leaf clovers

And if you just wait you'll pick one of those someday

Heart - don't be a fool, don't you understand she don't want you?

And lips: don't tell her a word

And ears: just don't believe all the things you've heard

It's hard for a man to be lovin' someone that simply won't be loved

But take your time and someday you will find the one you're dreaming of

(solo)

Don't you show her your face or the heartache you've got inside you

Cause she will only laugh and put you down

Someday you'll find someone who loves and gods you

So close up your lips and don't you act like a clown

Heart - don't be a fool, don't you understand she don't want you?

And lips: don't tell her a word

And ears: just don't believe all the things you've heard
