All the boys came in to town
In their big cars and drove around
They had a girl all dressed in rags
And nobody wanted to love her the way
The way that I only could

Little rag-doll, how I love you
Though everybody say you're not good
Little rag-doll, how I love you
And I would take you if I could

All the boys would only tease
And she said "don't" and she said "please"
And suddenly I caught her eye
And she looked at me and there was only her
And I only wanted to cry

Little rag-doll, how I love you
Though everybody say you're not good
Little rag-doll, how I love you
And I would take you if I could

You've got the sun and the moon and the stars in your eyes and I love you
But you won't love me no matter how much I try so I just can dream of you

Little rag-doll, how I love you
Though everybody say you're not good
Little rag-doll, how I love you
And I would take you if I only could
