Oh, how I love you don't you go
Cause I need you and if you gonna leave
I wont be myself forever more

You, know my love for you is true
If I hurt you tell me please what it is
Please don't leave me feeling oh so blue

Don't tell me that it's over
Cause I really love you so
My heart will be unbroken (oh broken? so broken?)
If you say that you would go

Never leave cause I want you here with me
And I always love you more than you know
I'll always so don't you endless me

Don't tell me that it's over
Cause I really love you so
My heart will be unbroken (oh broken? so broken?)
If you say that you would go

Never leave cause I want you here with me
And I always love you more than you know
I'll always so don't you endless me

Always endless me

I'll always so don't you endless me
