She was seventeen I was twenty-five
Just too love her sad required the time
And I wanted to love her all my life
Now she's gone but still she's on my mind

She was prettier than all chicks around
Every night she was my turn of love
The way she had her red hair hanging down
Almost made me crazy for her love

Ohh, oh Red haired Lisa you know I love you girl
Nothing in the world could make me leave
Red haired Lisa prettiest in the world
Gonna love you 'til eternity

Well I cried several nights when you went away
I did treat you right still you treated me that way
Red haired Lisa you know I love you girl
Nothing in the world could make me leave

Almost couldn't believe what I'd to see
When I wake up before on the bike
She came around in a rambler '63 with a brown eyed man right by her side

Ohh, oh Red haired Lisa you know I love you girl
Nothing in the world could make me leave
Red haired Lisa prettiest in the world
Gonna love you 'til eternity

Well I cried several nights when you went away
I did treat you right still you treated me that way
Red haired Lisa you know I love you girl
Nothing in the world could make me leave

Red haired Lisa prettiest in the world
Gonna love you 'til the eternity
