Mama's really busy in the kitchen today
Shook a rolling pin and shoved us away
All alone at the sink wanna see no man
When she's rocking in the kitchen with the pots and pans

Gonna make us a stew and wanna see no fail
Dog pops away with a drooping tail
And the cat runs away when he hears her shout
Everybody in the area is going out

She bosses around for an hour or two
To make us a bite that is easy to chew
Mama's in the kitchen, yea there is no doubt
Everybody can see the smoke coming out

Daddy just says that she mean no harm
Then he runs away to hide in the barn
When mama's in the mood she can scare any man
When she rocks into kitchen with the pots and the pans

(Solo)

My sister gets a funny look on her face
When it starts to smell all over the place
And the hogs start grunting in the little sty
'Cause they hope she's making an apple pie

She bosses around for an hour or two
To make us a bite that is easy to chew
Mama's in the kitchen, yea there is no doubt
Everybody can see the smoke coming out

The neighbours comes over and rows asides
Wondering whoever put on the fire
And my daddy just says "No one understand When she's rocking in the kitchen with the pots and the pans"

(Solo)

When she's calling us in and we're ready to eat
Everybody's acting really nice and neat
Though the crumb that she makes has a sort of tan
When she's rocking in the kitchen with the pots and the
pans

Gonna make us a stew, wanna see no fail
Dog pops away with a drooping tail
And the cat runs away when he hear her shout
Everybody in the area is going out

She bosses around for an hour or two
To make us a bite that is easy to chew
Mama's in the kitchen, yes there is no doubt
Everybody can see the smoke coming out

Mama's really busy in the kitchen today
Shook a rolling pin and shoved us away
All alone at the sink wanna see no man
When she's rocking in the kitchen with the pots and the
pans
